The Boston Public Library,
Roxbury Crossing Branch,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mrs. Forbes:

I am in receipt of your letter of recent date.

I am sorry to hear that you did not receive the catalogue that was sent to you. The supply has been exhausted for the time being, but we are expecting some more during the next week or so from the main office. As soon as they arrive to hand, we will mail you a copy.

I expect to be in Boston sometime during the third week of the month and shall make it my business to call and see you to discuss the matters about which you have written me. I shall call to see you at your home which is noted in my book as No. 18 Wellington Street.

With best wishes I beg to remain

Very truly yours,

A. A. Schomburg
